Mon, 06 Dec 2017 14:54:50 +0000 MANAGEMENT launches into open beta! This week, we also got in touch with the team about Dungeon Management. They announced that they were releasing into open beta, and it will be going out to our testers in a day or two. The developers made an announcement saying they would be reviewing feedback with the community, but as of this post, they have made good on their promise, and have been organizing a Q&A session for those of you who want to ask their questions! This week, we will be live streaming the Q&A session, so make sure you check back to see if it starts. Also, their website is up and running! All you need to do is head to

I am trying to get a div to show the contents of a database in a manner similar to what is shown at I am using the code below, but my ajax function isn't calling correctly. In the script called "UpdateReport", you will see the database contents being set on ajax. Below that is my jquery code: `$(document).ready(function(){ $('#updateReport').load('UpdateReport.php'); $('#updateReport').find(".title").text(getTitle()); $('#updateReport').find(".subtitle").text(getSubtitle()); $('#updateReport').find(".comments").text(getComments()); $('#updateReport').find(".is_flagged").text(getIsFlagged()); }); function getTitle(){ var title = $('#title').text(); return title; } function getSubtitle(){ var subtitle = $('#subtitle').text(); return subtitle; } function getComments(){ var comments = $('#comments').text(); return comments; } function getIsFlagged(){ var isFlagged = $('#is_flagged').text(); return isFlagged; } When I run this code,`
